Lanark County has a wide variety of outdoor art pieces to explore – from murals to sculptures to signs, and more! Some are in the heart of a town, others are hidden by a river or in the middle of a field. We have highlighted some outdoor art locations on the map. Check out the website that lists many more unique and inspirational pieces and where you can find them. Your journey will take you on roads and places you've never been before. Visit the website for more information about the art pieces (information about the artist, the materials and the inspiration behind the piece and more).
